Corporate Diversity/MultiCultural Law Magazine Celebrates its 8th Annual “Top 100 Law Firms for Diversity” List

ATLANTA, GA- May 9, 2011 – MultiCultural Law Magazine announces their signature coverage of the “Top 100 Law Firms for Diversity” spotlighting the leaders, movers and shakers in diversity in the legal arena. The “Top 100” will be featured in the 2011 edition of MultiCultural Law Magazine available.

The selection process for MultiCultural Law's “Top 100 Law Firms for Diversity” begins with a mass distribution of diversity surveys to hundreds of law firms nationwide based on four categories: Women, Associates, Partners and overall Diversity. Additionally, they are subcategorized as follows: African-American, Asian/Pacific Islander, Hispanic and Native American. The statistical information received from over 500 prospective law firms was very competitive.

“MultiCultural Law Magazine continues to be in the forefront to showcase firms that are making the case for diversity and setting the tone for inclusion,” says L.P. Green, II, Publisher and CEO of MultiCultural Law Magazine. “We recognize the pioneering spirit of these firms and we promote those initiatives as a prototype for all law firms to “think outside the box” and to focus on a culturally diverse and globally inclusive base of attorneys and support staff.”
