

AGs Want High Court to Ok Microsoft Overseas Data Access

Law360

12.14.2017

Related People:

Charles D. Ray

A coalition of 35 state attorneys general urged the U.S. Supreme Court on Wednesday to strike down a ruling that the federal government can't access user data stored overseas by Microsoft, saying the "remarkable" decision gives too much control to private companies, while the European Commission and the U.K. and Irish governments separately weighed in on the dispute.