Inez Markovich, who chaired the banking, lending and debt restructuring practices at her last two law firms, has joined McCarter & English as a partner in Philadelphia, where she is the third new partner to arrive in two months.

Markovich is a member of the firm's bankruptcy and restructuring practice group.

She negotiates and documents all kinds of loans—including commercial and industrial, asset-based and real estate loans—as well as securitizations, equipment leases, and other commercial finance transactions, workouts, debt restructurings and bankruptcies.
