

McCarter Elevates Three Lawyers to Special Counsel

Press Release

04.08.2021

McCarter has elevated three lawyers to Special Counsel, spanning the Boston, Newark, and Philadelphia offices.

Nicholas Allen is an experienced commercial litigator who also handles real estate and employment litigation, representing diverse clients in the financial services, health care, food and beverage, entertainment, and technology industries.

Jessica Macarone is part of the Bankruptcy and Restructuring Practice Group and routinely represents lenders, banking institutions and special servicers with respect to creditor rights, asset recovery, and commercial litigation and has extensive experience with loan workouts and forbearance agreements.

Michele Vanderstreet focuses on alternative dispute resolution and has been instrumental in the growth of the firm's alternative dispute resolution practice, supervising a significant portion of the firm's New Jersey ADR docket. Michele also handles white collar criminal defense matters and complex commercial litigation for clients in the financial services and technology industries, as well as complex environmental and insurance broker litigation.
