

McCarter & English Launching Pro Bono Fellowship Program to Help Newark Residents

Related People:

Michelle Pallak
Robert A. Mintz

ROI-NJ

07.17.2018

Law firm McCarter & English has found a new way to reinforce its commitment to its hometown of Newark.

The firm has established a pro bono fellowship aimed at helping city residents cope with legal issues, it announced Tuesday. The full-time, one-year renewable fellowship would see an attorney come on board in the fall, initially working on behalf of tenants facing eviction.

Applications for the position are due Aug. 31.

Click to read full article: "McCarter & English Launching Pro Bono Fellowship Program to Help Newark Residents"