Susan A. Feeney

Susan Feeney presents on various topics at the COST 2015 Property Tax Workshop to be held on January 20-22, 2015, at the Westin Galleria in Dallas, Texas. The COST Workshop is held in cooperation with the International Property Tax Institute (IPTI). The goal of this program is to bring multistate property tax professionals who have various levels of experiences together to have extensive interactions and to exchange valuable information. Timely legislative and litigation updates are provided, as well as recent property tax trends and opportunities to evaluate whether business properties are over taxed.

Susan's participation included panels on the following topics: Wired and Wireless – Property Tax Issues in the Communication Industry and Property Tax Relief Via Incentives and Abatement Programs as well as being included in the Ask the Experts discussion panel at the conclusion of the workshop.
