

Ryan Richman Reappointed to the New Jersey Supreme Court's Model Civil Jury Charge Committee

Related People:
Ryan Richman

10.30.2020

The New Jersey Supreme Court has approved Ryan Richman's re-appointment to serve on the 2020-2022 Rules term for the Supreme Court Committee on Model Civil Jury Charge representing the New Jersey Defense Association, a standing committee of the New Jersey Supreme Court which prepares and updates model civil jury charges to be useful to trial judges and litigants to accomplish the important function of adequately and understandably instructing civil juries. It is one of the court's most influential and prestigious committees, composed of many of the state's most respected judges and practicing attorneys.