

Financial services company—Misappropriation of trade secrets

10.29.2019

Obtained injunctive relief prohibiting a former employee of a nationwide financial services company from using misappropriated confidential information, requiring the return of all such information and documents, and mandating that the ex-employee's personal computer devices be produced for computer forensic analysis.