

Global pharmaceutical company—Summary judgment

05.12.2022

Secured summary judgment for a global pharmaceutical company in a case involving allegations by a Plaintiff-insurance broker that it was entitled to continued commissions in excess of $10 million on insurance policies placed after it had been terminated as the company's broker of record.