

Multinational financial services company—Construction loan

10.16.2019

Represented a multinational financial services company in a joint venture with a developer involving the multi-use redevelopment of a 400,000-square-foot former department store in Newark, New Jersey, which includes a 30,000-square-foot supermarket on its first floor. We helped the client secure financing through a partnership between public, non-profit, and private groups.
