

DISPUTE: Multinational government contractor—Multibillion-dollar contract dispute

11.14.2019

Developed claims on behalf of multinational government contractor valued in excess of $270 million in connection with a multibillion-dollar information technology contract dispute and assisted the company in successfully structuring a settlement without resort to litigation.