

U.S. chemicals company—Dismissal of NJ federal class action

11.21.2019

Secured the voluntary dismissal of a NJ federal court class action targeting a U.S. chemicals company and its former parent over allegations of environmental contamination. After the McCarter team filed a motion to dismiss and motion to strike the class allegations, the plaintiff voluntarily dismissed the litigation.