

Various national, state, and foreign banking institutions—Financing

04.01.2022

Have structured, negotiated, and originated numerous permanent, construction, and bridge mortgage loans and subordinate loans in connection with office, retail, multifamily, hotel, and other specialized commercial properties located throughout the United States for money center, regional, local and community banks, and thrifts as well as foreign banks and investment banks.